

How do we inform ourselves of the crisis of poverty in our Neighbourhoods, Communities and Country?

A Panel of people engaged with whanau in Glen Innes and beyond will share stories, perspectives and wisdom around the impact of poverty and injustice ...

Nau mai Haere Mai Catherine McAuley Lecture Panel 2014 Where 'Justice and Mercy' meet in our Neighbourhoods Communities & Country

WHERE IS MERCY in listening and responding to the needs of Today?

Catherine McAuley founder of the Sisters of Mercy had a particular ability to address immediate need in a practical and loving way while at the same time addressing the systemic issues that underpinned those needs.

For Catherine anything that advanced human dignity was worthy of her attention.

Through the Works of Mercy, Catherine always aimed to set people free.

Tuesday 15th July 2pm ~ 4pm

Te Waipuna Puawai,

12a Umere Cres, Ellerslie

RSVP: Marie Brown rsm

by Friday 11th July

Email: fmbrown@xtra.co.nz

Ph: 09 527 8201

Panel

Cristy Trewartha - Coordinator of the ' Heart ' Movement. a family violence prevention initiative in Glen Innes, to demonstrate a new approach that is focused on making positive change.

Danielle Bergin - Coordinator of the Island Child Charitable Trust in Glen Innes. ~ Housing, Homeless Families

Chris Dale - Manager of the East Auckland Home and Budget Service ~ Budgeting and the Community initiative - 'G FIT' (Growing Financial Independence in Tamaki)

Josephine Bartley - Member of the Maungakiekie - Tamaki Local Board ~ Community approach in the Tamaki area particularly for youth at risk.

Puamiria Maaka - CEO Te Waipuna Puawai.

What statistics tell us about who is most at risk and where we need to be to make a positive difference in people's lives.

What do we hear from 'experts and media' on this topic.

Where are the gaps? Whose voices remain silent? Why?